Drawing & Sketchbooks	Pupils become familiar with creating drawings using their whole body, whilst experiencing a range of drawing materials. Pupils discover an artist and will demonstrate their understanding of the artist's work by responding through a making challenge and peer discussion. Pupils consolidate their understanding of how they can make spiral drawings using their whole bodies by making "snail drawings". Pupils push exploration of different qualities of line, colour blending, and mark making using chalk and oil pastels. Pupils become familiar with what a sketchbook can be used for. They will make or personalise their own sketchbooks, demonstrating that they have ownership of their sketchbook and understand that it is a platform for personal creative risk taking. Pupils become familiar with the idea that they can make drawings through observation. Pupils show an understanding of what a continuous line drawing is and have had the opportunity to experiment with scale, line and materials. Pupils reflect on their drawings over the half term, sharing what they like and what they would like to try again through peer discussion. Molly Haslund.	Pupils will become familiar with the idea that other artists are inspired by exploring and collecting things in and around their environment. They will record their thoughts and feelings about the artwork in their sketchbooks and will visually list places and things that they can explore and collect from school home and their local area. Pupils will demonstrate their curiosity by exploring their playground or school area to collect items that inspire them. Pupils will play with the objects to create new shapes and patterns on the ground. Pupils will decide which objects to bring back to the classroom before continuing to play with pattern and composition. They will demonstrate sorting skills by grouping objects by colour, size, material, and type. Children will take photos of their arrangements and reflect on their gathering and documentation. Pupils will work in sketchbooks using a variety of media (hand-writing pens, pencils). They will draw the things that they collected in week 2, becoming familiar with exercises like continuous line drawing and feely drawing. They will begin to develop hand-eye coordination through slow drawing and understand that they can explore an object through touch. Pupils will use the skills that they have picked up in previous weeks to create a finished drawing. They will be introduced to wax resist techniques and will start considering 'composition' when making work. Pupils will display their work in a clear space and reflect on the half term, sharing what they like and	Pupils will begin to explore charcoal as a drawing material. Pupils will respond to the work of contemporary artist Laura McKendry and great master Edgar Degas. Pupils will compare the artists and will share their thoughts in peer discussion. Pupils will discover the qualities of charcoal, opening their minds to the mark making possibilities. They will explore how charcoal responds to various complementary materials. Pupils will think about how they can experiment with mark making to create line, shape and tone. Pupils will begin to think about light and dark by being introduced to the term 'Chiaroscuro'. Pupils will be reminded of the beginnings of drawing and use charcoal and their hands to make marks on a page. Pupils will gain experience using new techniques with charcoal such as smudging, erasing, and using fingers as a mark making tools. Option 1: Pupils will explore how they can use charcoal to respond to narrative and create a dramatic atmosphere. They will continue their exploration of chiaroscuro through creating dramatic sets. Pupils will consider tone, composition, texture, and depth when they build their dramatic sets. Option 2: Pupils will explore how they can use charcoal and gestural movements made by the body to explore charcoal dance and performance. Pupils will be introduced to an artist who creates large drawings using her whole body. They will share their thoughts about the work in class discussion. Pupils will respond to the space that you have, to create either large scale drawings using their whole bodies or by working in pairs using their hands and arms. Pupils.	Pupils will explore the work of two artists who create illustrations that tell stories. Pupils will respond to their work through verbal discussion in class as well as by collecting and consolidating information with visual notes. Pupils will use toys, poetry, and their own text to create richly illustrated narratives contained within a single drawing. Pupils will juxtapose objects to create their still life scenes from which they will work. Pupils will explore the materials charcoal, chalk, compressed charcoal pencil, and eraser to make their drawings. Pupils will explore how they can build and share a story through a series of images. They will work from evocative literature or poetry to create either a concertina or a poetry comic. Pupils will have lots of opportunity to explore different materials such as charcoal, graphite, ink, or pastel. Pupils will use sketchbooks to develop ideas throughout. Pupils will display their work in a clear space and reflect on the half term, sharing what they like and what they would like to try again through peer discussion. Laura Carlin, Shaun Tan	Pupils will become familiar with the term 'typography'. They will be introduced to designers who work with type to communicate thoughts and ideas visually. Pupils will create their own letters from cut up basic shapes in a playful way to think about the form of letters. They will work in their sketchbooks to consider what they like and what they might develop further. Pupils will create their own letters of a typeface using their intuition. Working in large scale they will explore as many variations of letters as they can think of, developing them into a whole word or a phrase. Pupils will work over maps / newspaper / pre-printed paper to create strong bold drawings that stand out over the background. Pupils will build confidence in their strong mark-making skills. Pupils will be introduced to artists who create maps. They will discover that maps can reveal things about the artist who made them, provide comments about a culture, place, and time, or be based in imagination. They will respond to the work in class discussion and in their sketchbooks. Pupils will develop ideas from the typography activity in week 2, to build visual text for map making. Pupils will display their work in a clear space and reflect on the half term, sharing what they like, what they would like to try again, the creative journey, and the skills learnt through peer discussion. Louise Fili, Grayson Perry, Paula Scher	Pupils will become familiar with the idea that artists can paint on wood to create flat, standing images which viewers can walk amongst. Pupils have time to experiment with line, shape and colour to create drawings over the top of their prints. Pupils collect textured objects which they will take rubbings from, using materials such as wax crayons or pencil crayons. Pupils work in sketchbooks or on large sheets to create compositions with their rubbings. Pupils are introduced to 'relief printing'. They demonstrate their understanding of the relationship between a plate and a print through making either impressions in plasticine or creating a deep recess in foam board. Pupils demonstrate their understanding of using controlled pressure and paint amounts to create a print. Children will continue to develop their hand-eye coordination through slow drawing, picking out the things that interest them, playing with scale and line. Pupils will continue to develop their careful looking and mark making whilst they create small drawings of small objects. They will work in sketchbooks or on larger sheets of loose paper creating small drawings of lots of varied small objects. Pupils will reflect in small groups about whether they prefer drawings from week 1 or 2. Pupils will explore the work of an artist who uses mono print. Pupils will learn how to create their own monoprints using carbon paper, creating observational drawings of objects. They will demonstrate that they can use oil pastel to experiment with colour, shape and line; taking creative risks to see what can be achieved with this technique. Pupils will continue to discover the potential of carbon paper mono prints whilst exploring narrative or invention. Pupils will discover without working towards a predefined outcome. They will work alongside in sketchbooks to make notes about their discoveries. If pupils have worked on lots of loose sheets they will make a sketchbook incorporating all of this work. Pupils will display their work in a clear space and reflect on the half term, sharing what they like and what they would like to try again through peer discussion. Xgaoc'o Xare	Pupils will visually explore chosen artwork in class using the 'Show Me What You See' technique. During the exercise pupils will consider shape, colour, and composition. I can look at the work of my classmates and give useful feedback through class or small group discussion. Matisse, Claire Willberg	Pupils will relax into making a sensory drawing by making holes in a page with a sharp pencil and needle. They repetitive nature of the activity will encourage pupil to make decisions as they go to create a rhythmic piece. Pupils will discover an artist who explores patterns, signs and motifs that hold significance to her identity and will respond to her work in a class discussion. Pupils will devise their own process criteria to help them make drawings inspired by Sol Lewitt. Pupils will experiment with materials and colours to invent their own unique patterns. They will consider angles and mathematical terms such as "parallel". They will work in sketchbooks, collaborate, and discuss aims and outcomes. Option 1: Pupils will become familiar with tessellations. They will invent their own shape that fits together repeatedly. Pupils will explore colour theory such as complimentary colours, and cold and warm colour. Option 2: Pupils will explore the work of a surface pattern designer. Working in 3 Dimensions	Pupils become familiar with the term 'sculpture'. Pupils are introduced to the idea that sculptures are made by sculptors. They are involved in discussion about the work with their peers. Pupils create drawings inspired by the sculptures that they have seen. Pupils respond to prompts through making and constructing materials. They demonstrate that they can experiment with materials without having a predefined outcome. Children find out how they might attach more than one material together to construct new forms through trial and error. Pupils apply what they found out about the properties of materials during lesson 2 and push their exploration further by responding to the selected brief. Using their imaginations and hands, pupils will manipulate, build and invent sculptures. Sketchbooks are used to record their findings. Pupils reflect on their sculptures over the half term, sharing what they like and what they would like to try again through peer discussion. Pupils identify what they learnt about different materials. They may photograph their work and stick photos into their sketchbooks.	Pupils will become familiar with the term 'architecture'. They will think about architecture in their local area and engage in peer discussion about local landmarks. Pupils will be challenged to make several drawings in sketchbooks using hand-writing pens taking no longer than 5 or 10 minutes, thinking about line and mark making. Pupils will be introduced to the work of Hundertwasser and will use images and videos to frame discussion around his work. Pupils will respond by collecting and gathering information visually in their sketchbooks using a range of materials. Pupils will use the 'design through making' approach to make their own architecture. They will be inventive about the shapes and structures that they will use and which 3d forms they want to create. Pupils will address questions of how their architecture will stand, the purpose of it, and who it will be made for. They will work in their sketchbooks to record their findings. Pupils will respond to interventions designed to give them fresh perspectives or ideas. Pupils will display their work in a clear space and reflect on the half term, sharing what they like and what they would like to try again through peer discussion. Hundertwasser, Zaha Hadid, Heatherwick Studios	Pupils will look at the work of artists Inbal Leitner and Rosie Hurlley to see how they use their sketchbooks to develop characters and refine ideas. They will respond by filling a couple of pages in their sketchbooks with visual notes about what they are thinking and seeing. Pupils will try three simple exercises to help them draw from life and explore how we might use exaggeration as a tool to help us convey the intention of our drawing. Pupils will use line and shape and will also create a watercolour wash painting to consolidate all that they have learnt in the session. Pupils will translate text into imagery using shape and line. They will use their sketchbooks to respond to the original stimulus before developing a sculptural character, Pupils will, re-interpret, and re-invent the character whilst exploring the qualities of different materials. They will explore character, narrative, and context to create their sculptures showing consideration for form, texture, material, construction, and colour. Pupils will display their work in a clear space and reflect on the half term, sharing what they like and what they would like to try again through peer discussion. Rosie Hurlley, Inbal Leitner, Roald Dahl, Quentin Blake	Pupils will become familiar with artists who create sculpture based on food. They will be introduced to Claes Oldenburg and contemporary artist Lucia Hierro's soft sculptures. Pupils will respond by filling a couple of sketchbook pages with visual notes, jotting down quick drawings, words about how they feel, similarities and differences between the artist's work, and any other thoughts. Pupils will show you what they can see by creating observational drawings from film / life. They will consider shape, colour, texture, and composition whilst using a variety (and combination) of materials. Pupils will explore their favourite foods through sculpture. Option 1: Pupils will explore painting and sculpture by recreating tins and jars of their favourite foods. They will explore line, shape, and colour through three different exercises. Pupils will turn their paintings into 3D sculptures to form a classroom shop installation. Option 2: Pupils will explore Modroc as a new material to make a sculptural feast which will contribute to a class meal. They will explore texture and modelling as well as colour and form. Pupils will lay out a picnic, including food which contributes colour, texture, pattern, and form to inspire lots of creative drawings into cloth. Pupils will work on a new surface (cloth) and see how using this material is different to working on paper. Pupils will display their work in a clear space and reflect on the half term, sharing what they like and what they would like to try again through peer discussion. Pupils will reflect upon all stages of the journey and reference the artists studied. If available, they will take photographs of their work on tablets or cameras. Claes Oldenburg, Lucia Hierro	Pupils will begin to think about the purpose of architecture and the roles and responsibilities that architects have in society. They will be introduced to amazing architectural homes and tiny homes. Pupils will be introduced to the question: "As architects, should we aspire to fill the world full of amazing, beautiful buildings, or do we serve ourselves and the planet better by designing small, modest, cleverly designed eco homes. Or can we do both?" Pupils will use sketchbooks to think about structures and materials found in both amazing houses and tiny homes, and they will begin to pick out bits of the architecture that appeals to them. Pupils will work on large scale to revisit drawings made in previous sessions to collect ideas that they might like to include in their own building structures. They will be introduced to artist 'The Shoreditch Sketcher'. Pupils will consider whether they want their building to be big or small. Using foamboard, children will build a model of their house using the 'Design Through Making approach', taking inspiration from drawings in previous weeks but making decisions largely based on the material and what they find it can do. Pupils will display their work in a clear space and walk around the work as if they are in a gallery, sharing what they like about their own and each other's work. Pupils will work in pairs or teams to document their work using cameras or Ipads. Shoreditch Sketcher, Various Architects	Pupils will make an elastic band sketchbook using white paper and cardboard. They will identify and explore colour within the sketchbooks. Pupils will explore the work of the artists Olafur Eliasson, Yinka Ilori, Morag Myerscough, Liz West who use colour in their work. They will become familiar with how artists might respond in different ways to colour. Pupils will create visual responses to artists' work in their sketchbooks using paper, paint, ink, pastel to respond in their sketchbooks. Pupils are encouraged to guide their own exploration, making choices about how they want to use colour in their artwork. Option 1: Mini Light Boxes. Pupils will create models of sculptural installations exploring light, colour and form. Option 2: Sculptural Challenge: Colourful Walls. Pupils will create a design proposal for a colourful architectural installation exploring colour and form. Option 3: Sculptural Challenge: Colour, Light and Form. Pupils will create an idea for an installation which uses light, colour and form (and even maybe sound) to create an immersive experience for others. Olafur Eliasson, Yinka Ilori, Morag Myerscough, Liz West
